Brief History of the Knights of Columbus

Heavenly Father raise your faithful servant Michael to the honors of the altar.

Father Michael J. McGivney
Knights of Columbus Founder
(1852-1896)

The Knights of Columbus was founded in 1882 by a 29-year-old parish priest, Father Michael J. McGivney, in the basement of St. Mary's Church in New Haven, Connecticut. Today, more than a century later, the Knights of Columbus has become the largest lay organization in the Catholic Church.

The Order has been called "the strong right arm of the Church," and has been praised by popes, presidents and other world leaders, for support of the Church, programs of evangelization and Catholic education, civic involvement and aid to those in need. As recently as 1992, Mother Teresa of Calcutta praised the Knights in a speech on the occasion of her reception of the first Knights of Columbus Gaudium et Spes Award.

Thanks to the inspired work of Father McGivney - as well as that of millions of other Knights over the past century - the Knights of Columbus now stands at its pinnacle of membership, benefits and service. Currently, there are over 1.6 million Knights of Columbus - more than ever before in our Order's history. Together with their families, the Knights are nearly 6 million strong. In addition, from the first local council in New Haven, the Order has grown to more than 12,000 councils in the United States, Canada, Mexico, the Philippines, Puerto Rico, Cuba, the Dominican Republic, Panama, the Virgin Islands, Guatemala, Guam and Saipan. Each year, the Order continues this strong growth.

VOLUNTEER SERVICE AND INSURANCE

As the Order has grown, its benevolence has multiplied. The Order continues to break all previous records for charitable contributions and volunteer service. In the past decade, the Knights donated nearly $1 billion to numerous charitable causes and nearly 400 million hours of volunteer service. In 1998 alone, the Knights donated an all-time high of more than $110 million and 55 million volunteer hours to charitable causes.

Father McGivney's founding vision for the Order also included establishing a life insurance program to provide for the widows and orphans of deceased members. The Order's insurance program has expanded substantially to serve more effectively the Knights' growing membership. Year after year, the Knights of Columbus has earned the highest possible quality ratings for financial soundness from A.M. Best and Standard & Poor's. The Order provides the highest quality insurance and annuity products to its members, along with many other fraternal benefits.

CHARITY, UNITY, FRATERNITY, AND PATRIOTISM

Knights of Columbus are Catholic gentlemen committed to the exemplification of charity, unity, fraternity, patriotism, and defense of the priesthood. The Order is consecrated to the Blessed Virgin Mary. The Order is unequivocal in its loyalty to the Pope, the Vicar of Christ on earth. It is firmly committed to the protection of human life, from conception to natural death, and to the preservation and defense of the family. It was on these bedrock principles that the Order was founded over a century ago and remains true to them today.

If you want to join this great organization of Catholic men, it is likely that there is a local council near you. There you will find brother Knights working to fulfill the central mission of the Order: striving in charitable works; serving the Church and unified in following its teachings; supporting brother Knights in their temporal and spiritual needs; acting for the good of their country; and giving aid to widows, orphans, the sick and the poor. This is Father McGivney's dream, echoing across the century, and living today in the hearts of his brothers and all of those they touch.

Update:

In 2016, The Knights of Columbus had almost 2million members, who together donated $177.5million to worthy charities, and provided over 75million volunteer service hours to their communities. The Knights of Columbus has issued over $100billion in life insurance to its members.

A Historical Synopsis of Our Lady of Mount Carmel Council 13300

On February 25, 2003, thirty-five brother Knights came together to form Our Lady of Mount Carmel Council No 13300 in the St Vincent DePaul parish of Wildwood, Florida. The name of the Council, Our Lady of Mount Carmel, was recommended by Brother Knight Deacon Byron Otradovec who was member of the Lay Carmelite Order of the Blessed Virgin Mary.

From that beginning this Council has been supporting the Food Pantry, Soup Kitchen and the Lazarus Free Clinic in Wildwood, Florida in addition to supporting the activities of the St Vincent DePaul parish. In the years since then, this Council has been busy leading rallies in Wildwood supporting the "culture of life", organizing Free Throw competitions for the youth of Wildwood, assisting our pastor with masses at the Brownwood Care Center in Wildwood and even reaching out to neighboring communities like Belleview to support the "Hands of Mercy Everywhere" (H.O.M.E) organization for unwed mothers.

At the St Vincent DePaul parish, our Brother Knights are involved in almost every ministry such as the ushers, Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion, readers, musicians and singers, bereavement ministry, etc. We have also been in the background doing much of the "heavy lifting" to make parish parties and picnics a success. In those efforts we have sometimes been referred to as "the men in red shirts" setting up the venue getting it ready for the event and dismantling it and cleaning up the venue at the conclusion of the event. Those in the Color Corps of Fourth Degree Knights always turn out in full regalia when requested for funerals and special events like when the Bishop comes to visit.

The Knights of Columbus Emblem

The Knights of Columbus Emblem

The Columbian coat of arms consists solely of straight lines and angles, symbolizing the determination, tenacity, firmness and courage that the Order's founders had to demonstrate in the face of difficulties to surmount, problems to solve to defend their faith and their rights in a milieu ill-suited to the growth of their Movement.

Figures and Symbols

The Columbian Coat of Arms contains three symbolic elements: the sword, the anchor and the battle axe, recalling the noble and illustrious deeds of the Order's founders.

The sword and the anchor, placed one over the other, form a sort of "X" or St Andrew's cross.

The sword symbolizes honor, distinction, bravery and courage.

The anchor, an instrument designed to hold a ship in place, represents that which attaches, stops, consolidates and stabilizes.

The battle axe, placed on the shield, symbolizes action taken to overcome obstacles or ambushes on the road to accomplishing one's objectives.

The bundle represents the solid grouping of people come together to realize a common ideal under the guidance of a recognized leader. It symbolizes teamwork, the strength inherent in unity and fraternity.

The helmet, placed on the upper part of the Coat of Arms represents rank or degree of nobility. On the coat of arms of a warrior it is the noblest and principal ornament.

The little white triangle, above the helmet and pointing upward, symbolizes the flame which lights and guides.

The Colors

The blue (azure), represents the sky, that is, God who watches over the world. It is the symbol of hope, peace, and confidence.

The white (silver) is innocence, frankness and purity of intention.

The yellow (gold) denotes indestructible goods, the richness that comes with hard work.

The red symbolizes giving of one's self, courage, valor and heroism in the fight for one's faith, one's language and one's rights.

Faith in Action Program Categories

These highlighted programs are meant to inspire Knights of Columbus Council 13300 members to put their faith into action. Our Council may choose to conduct one or more of these programs, or it may develop programs unique to our parish or community. The goals are for our Council members to be active, and conduct programs that draw them closer to their faith, families and communities — as well as defending life in all stages and under all conditions.

A well-rounded Council program will have activities in each of the following categories: Faith, Family, Community and Life. These categories are developed by Supreme, which is the governing body for all Knights of Columbus Councils. As an added incentive for Councils to accomplish their goals and serve their communities, Supreme has established a system of awarding points to recognize successful Councils. Our Council is encouraged to select and implement selected programs from the matrix below to help make a difference in our parish and the local community. Fulfilling the selected activities in all four categories can lead to our Council receiving the prestigious Columbian Award.
